

MAINTENANCE AND CONTROL OF INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS

Textbooks

Textbooks used in the public schools will be maintained in good condition with due consideration for normal wear. They will be reasonably up to date in form and content, and will be provided in adequate numbers of copies to provide for efficient instruction.

As permitted by state law, the school system may lend textbooks to nonpublic school students resident in Bristol.

The superintendent will issue the necessary regulations for all aspects of textbook inventory control.

Adopted: January 24, 1994

LEGAL REF.: 16-23-2

CONTRACT REF.: BWEA agreement, Art.

CROSS REF.: IIAA, Textbook Selection and Adoption